ARE DRENCHED WITH BLOOD

Streets of Teheran Run Red When the Rebels Enter

MARCH ON SHAH'S PALACE

Small Band to Oppose the Rebels.

Foreigners Will Sell Lives Dearly.

Holy War is Declared And the Nationalists and Tribesmen Are Wildly Excited—Residences on Plateau Are Razed and the Torch Applied Further Massacres Are Imminent.

Teheran, Persia, July 13.—The rebels entered the city this morning, forcing their way towards the Shah's palace leaving a trail in the streets of dead and wounded, gradually crowding back the small force of Persian Cossacks, who remain loyal to the Shah. The Cossacks barricaded the streets leading to the palace and the Russian and English legations. The Shah is being closely guarded in his palace.

It now seems certain that the rebels will force their way to the palace. Preparations have been made for the Shah to take refuge in the Russian legation, but even there his safety is uncertain.

All foreigners in the city have taken refuge in the British and Russian legations, armed themselves and fortified the buildings to resist the attack, which it is believed will follow the fall of the Shah's palace. The rebels are fired with fanatical fury by a declaration of holy war by the priests of the sacred college of Mullahs. Mullahs of the college were sent over the Persian frontier from Nejed, Turkey, to proclaim war and the news was received by the nationalists and tribesmen, who are with them, with wild excitement. The authorization of rebellion by the Moslem church gave the needed incentive to bring about bloody scenes. The declaration of a holy war was altogether unexpected, as never before has such a proclamation been made against the members of the Moslem faith.

The rebels, before they reached the city, ravaged the wide fertile plateau occupied by hundreds of magnificent summer residences that spread about the city. They looted and wrecked the buildings, then applied the torch.

Loyal citizens who were caught in their houses in the city endeavored to stop the advances and made a show of resistance. Scores were cut down in the street. The wounded lie beside the dead.

SCORES DEAD

Details of the Great Mine Horror in Spain Withheld.

Madrid July 13.—Owners of the mine at Belmez where the triple explosion occurred yesterday, entombing 700 men deny they are responsible for the disaster. The authorities are making every effort to suppress the particulars from the press and public. The details are still withheld.

Already scores of bodies have been taken from the mine and it is believed nearly all the entombed men were dead when found; as the galleries were clogged with falling coal and slate. It will take days, perhaps weeks to reach them.

WILL ABOLISH OFFICE OF MINISTER OF WAR.

Seoul, July 13.—A change in the Korean cabinet is imminent, it being proposed to abolish the ministry of war. The change will cause no disturbance.

Prince Ito, Japanese resident general in Korea, will leave for Tokyo on Wednesday. He was the guest of honor at an elaborate dinner given by the foreign consuls in Seoul.

ONE HALF OF THE STATE'S CATTLE HAVE TUBERCULOSIS

Columbus, O., July 13.—A statement has been issued by Dr. Paul Fischer, state veterinarian of the tubercular tests by his department of the cattle owned by the state. There are twelve herds and exactly 50 per cent of these contained tubercular animals.

The total number of cows comprising these herds at the time of the tests was 575 and there were eighty reactors, or 15 per cent of all dairy cows owned by the state, not including those at the Ohio State university. This is 3 per cent above the estimated average of the state.

RIFLES CRACK ON RIFLE RANGE

Sandusky, O., July 13.—Active target shooting began at Camp Perry yesterday, members of First regiment, Ohio National Guard, Cincinnati, Col. Charles F. Hake, Jr.; Second regiment, O. N. G., Lima, Col. Edward S. Bryant, and Second United States Infantry, Fort Thomas, Ky., Col. Howard Mansfield, participating. The latter completed his "hike" from Camp William H. Taft, Toledo, at daybreak.

Teams of fifteen sharpshooters, twelve regulars and three alternates will eventually be selected to represent regiments in the national competition in August.

The weather is fine, but rather breezy, but scores from present indications notwithstanding, will be record breakers.

TRAINS MEET HEAD-ON; ONE MAN BADLY INJURED.

Washington, Ind., July 13.—A southbound freight train on the Evansville and Indianapolis railroad crashed head-on into a northbound passenger train in this city yesterday afternoon.

J. H. Ashby, a mail clerk was probably fatally injured in jumping from the mail car, and several passengers were injured, but none seriously.

WANTS SPOT OF GROUND ON WHICH TO DIE.

Stantander, Spain, July 13.—In the manifesto, which General Ciriaco Castro recently addressed to Venezuela and in which the former president justifies his rule from political, military, diplomatic and administrative standpoints General Castro renounces his right to the presidency and asks only for a piece of ground so that he may die on his native soil.

LOCKED UP

Suffragettes Go to Jail Rather Than Pay Their Fines.

London, July 13.—Fifteen of the suffragettes who in the course of the raid on the House of Commons June 29 indulged in the breaking of windows with stones hidden in brown paper parcels went to prison for a month yesterday morning when they refused to give undertakings for their good behavior. They declined to pay the fines imposed, and were sentenced each to three weeks' imprisonment.

Sir Albert commented severely upon the lamentable spectacle of respectable women in the dock on charges usually associated with juvenile hoodlums. The suffragettes, most of whom made short speeches, claimed that their offenses were purely political. The course of Premier Asquith in refusing to receive their petition they said, had made militant action necessary and if the women were to be wronged Home Secretary Gladstone, War Secretary Haldane and John Burns, president of the local government board, who had incited them by taunting them with the statement that they were using only "pinprick methods" ought to be beside them in the dock.

Callahan, of Coshocton.

LOS ANGELES IS A BUSY PLACE.

San Jose, Calif., July 13.—Explaining brokenly that he never could survive the seven years prison term to which he was sentenced yesterday, William Christian Johnson made a full confession of his dealing with women all over the country and his methods of obtaining money from his many wives. His motive is becoming the dance and husband of so many women was not the result of an overweening fondness for fair sex, but purely mercenary. He said: "I had so many wives I cannot remember all of them and couldn't give all of their names. I don't think I could tell the exact number. I have been making by living by making love to and marrying women for over three years. My heart failed. I had a ways been popular among women so I conceived the idea of traveling about the country becoming engaged to women and getting what money I could from them. I didn't wish to marry any but in some cases it was impossible to get money without doing so."

CAPTURED

Japanese Mob of Strikers Capture Honolulu Sheriff.

Honolulu, July 13.—County Sheriff William P. Jarrett is a prisoner in a plantation mill at Waimanalo, where he is surrounded by an angry crowd of 300 Japanese strikers, according to a telephone message.

A squad of mounted police and a dozen deputies and several special policemen fully armed started in automobiles for Waimanalo as soon as the sheriff's urgent message was received.

Sheriff Jarrett went to Waimanalo plantation yesterday morning and arrested several Japanese charged with inciting an assault on Japanese strikers who had returned to work. When he attempted to start for Honolulu with his prisoner, Japanese strikers became wildly excited and assumed so threatening an attitude that the sheriff retreated with the prisoners to the plantation mill.

According to the telephone message Jarrett was surrounded by some 300 angry laborers. Waimanalo is on the southeast corner of Oahu, about eighteen miles from Honolulu.

EXPLODED

Ensign Is Killed When Hunting For Gas in the Hold.

Naples, July 13.—Hugh Kerr Alken of the armored cruiser North Carolina, died last night as the result of injuries received in an explosion on board the cruiser. Alken attempted an investigation of whether gas was generated in the coal hold. Wishing to face the risk alone, he instructed the sailors to keep behind him. When he entered he was not able to detect any odor of gas, and one of the men, who was carrying a lighted candle, came forward. Unfortunately, he slipped and his arm dropped, which brought the light in contact with the gas that was lying at a low level. Ensign Alken received the full force of the explosion which followed. He was dragged out by the men but died some hour later.

Corporal Maloney also was badly injured in the explosion, it being stated that he was completely blinded in both eyes. Several other men who accompanied Ensign Alken also were wounded but less seriously.

An alarm was immediately given and the commanding officer, with a force of men stamped out the fire. The North Carolina being anchored off a mile from the docks, the explosion passed unnoticed. Alken was carried to the infirmary of the cruiser and the accident only became known today on his death. The body will be embalmed and
